About

Annette Green is a soul-stirring Canadian singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, and sound healer whose music invites listeners on a journey of awakening and connection. Blending Celtic, folk, roots, blues, psychedelic rock, and funk, her sound is both nostalgic and visionary—anchored in the healing resonance of 432Hz, a frequency believed to harmonize mind, body, and spirit. Born in Ontario with Irish and Dutch roots, Annette channels generations of wisdom, personal resilience, and spiritual depth into every note she writes. Her debut album, Starchild 432Hz—released through Young Outlaw Music with distribution through Universal/Virgin Records—spans 30 years of songwriting and lived experience.

More than just music, Annette's work is a calling. Her powerful lyrics explore themes of consciousness, healing, and reconnection with the Earth. Whether on stage or in sacred sound ceremonies, she brings a magnetic presence that uplifts, heals, and inspires. Annette Green's mission is simple yet profound: to help people remember who they are, reconnect to the Earth, and rise through music.
